EXPERIENCE

July 2020 - Present

New England Sports Network

Assistant Content Producer

Produce a predictive gaming experience for Bruins and Red Sox viewers with over thirty-thousand registered users. For each game, create around 50 topical in-game questions and 6 on-air questions while incorporating sponsored elements, tune-in promos, and relevant stats and factoids between questions to keep users engaged.

Produce and edit montages, game highlights, interview segments, and other video elements for the pre-game and post-game shows and cross posting on web platforms.

Operate the score bug for Red Sox and Bruins broadcasts, coordinate with the director to run between 10-15 sponsored elements each game, and integrate in-game statcast information.

May 2020 - July 2020

DraftKings

Associate Technical Producer

Livestreamed virtual Madden simulations, including broadcasters' live commentary, daily on YouTube, Restream, and the DraftKings website using an at-home Wirecast set-up.

Incorporated graphics, video elements, music, and on-camera shots while acting as stage manager, technical director, and live chat moderator.

August 2019 - March 2020

Boston University Athletics

Video Production Assistant

Directed 7-camera broadcasts of Boston University Basketball games airing on Stadium, NESN, and NESNplus.

Produced and directed every game in the 2020 Women's Beanpot Tournament for NESN and NESNplus.

Coordinated internal and external footage requests, edited game highlights and interviews, and directed media day shoots.

January 2019 - August 2019

New England Sports Network

Creative Services Broadcast Associate

Wrote voice-over scripts and edited long-running promotional spots for NESN's Emmy award-winning programming.

Edited and re-packaged existing content into 45-90 second videos to increase the value of commercial breaks and diversify NESN's promotional inventory.

October 2018 - December 2018

BriteSpark Films

Production Management Intern

Assisted with pre-production on an international, week-long documentary shoot commissioned by Channel 4, with tasks ranging from location research and hotel bookings to handling $10,000 in cash for per diems.

Found and reconciled four months of missing receipts for domestic and international purchases totaling over $200,000.
